ROLLING THE STREET.

The part of the top layer of the paving that has been put down was given its first rolling last night and was found to stand the eight-ton roller very well. Another coat of the Westrumite will have to be put on this and it will have to be rolled until perfectly smooth before it is ready for traffic.

THE BASKETBALL

TEAM TO NAVASOTA

The Bryan High School girls' basketball team went to Navasota today to play the Navasota High School this afternoon. They were accompanied by a large number of friends and by Misses Allie and Ray Montgomery. The girls have put in some hard practice since their game with the convent girls and have improved very much, and feel confident of victory.

"The Girl and the Tramp," at the Colonial Today.

"The Girl and the Tramp" is the attraction at the Colonial today, playing matinee and night. "The Girl and the Tramp" is a mixture of drama, comedy and song, created for fun purposes only. It is said to be one long laugh from start to finish. Prominent in the cast are Miss Floy Mann and Mr. Fred Byers, as Happy Jack, the tramp. Introduced during the action of the play there will be seven song hits.

"Mutt and Jeff."

"Mutt and Jeff" and their entire family of fun makers, singers and dancers, come to the Colonial Tuesday night. "Mutt and Jeff" hold the record as the most successful cartoon play in theatrical history. It is a musical comedy on entirely new and unique lines, full of fun and good music, introducing those two inimitable character creations of Bud Fisher's genius with the pencil. The play was constructed for laughing purposes only and in that it has been entirely successful. From the first appearance of "Mutt and Jeff" until the final fall of the curtain, laughter is incessant; except when someone is shrieking in excess of merriment. When you go to see "Mutt and Jeff" place your dignity on the seat and sit down upon it. You are going to laugh without regard for dignified demeanor or regardless of what anyone is thinking about you. Probably you'll make a "darned fool" of yourself, but don't you care, as all the others are doing the same thing and they won't have time to notice you. You've undoubtedly enough of your own trouble in every day life, so forget it all and make friends with "Mutt and Jeff." It brings a car load of magnificent scenery and a Pullman car full of "beauty," that is to say, feminine beauty. No play is really worth while without a bevy of pretty girls and this "bevy" is more than pretty.

AT THE CRYSTAL NEXT WEEK.

As usual the same high standard of pictures will prevail at the Crystal every day next week. Every day a feature day, and the following is sufficient proof of this fact. We are showing the newest releases of both the Universal and Mutual Film Corporations, insuring a variety of subjects that will appeal to you:

For Monday—We beg to announce the big special feature in two parts, with that popular player, King Baggett, in "King, the Detective in the Jarvis Case." This is a heart-gripping story with many sensations. "Apply to Janitor" is a screaming comedy novelty by the Eclair-American Company. Geo. D. Carlton, Paul Scardon and Anna Laughlin in a powerful melodrama by the Reliance Company, "Some Rogues and a Girl." Muriel Ostriche, Marie Erline and Boyd Marshall in "Her Imaginary Family," is another fine comedy. Howard Davies, Billie West, Ernest Joy
